To ensure sufficient processing time, the last day by law that the Office of Elections may mail a voter-requested vote-by-mail ballot is December 31, 2012. You may pick up a vote-by-mail ballot in our office from December 10, 2012 until Election Day, January 8, 2013. The Office of Elections is located at 2956 Richardson Drive in the DeWitt Center in Auburn. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Election Day hours are 7:00 AM to 8:00 PM.

To provide better service to voters, the Placer County Office of Elections will be open the weekend prior to the election. Weekend hours are from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM on Saturday, January 5; and Sunday, January 6. Elections staff will be available on these days to process vote-by-mail requests and issue vote-by-mail ballots over the counter. Voters may call 530-886-5650 or toll-free in California, 1-800-824-8683, with questions regarding the upcoming election.

“This department is always looking for ways to be more accessible to the voters of the county. That is why I began weekend service more than fifteen years ago,” said Jim McCauley, Placer County Clerk-Recorder-Registrar of Voters. “We hope weekend hours enable even more people to take advantage of vote-by-mail voting and have their voices heard.”

Voters may register to vote, find their polling place, and find out election results on our website at www.placerelections.com.
