Date: January 9, 2012
Subject: Holiday Hours
Contact: Ferrin Call or Sam Kipp 530-886-5650

With the upcoming June 5, 2012 Presidential Primary Election, candidates will want to be aware of how the holidays affect office hours in the Placer County Office of Elections.

The Office of Elections will be closed on January 16, 2012 in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

The Office of Elections will be open with the reduced hours of 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM on February 13, 2012 and February 20, 2012 for the Lincoln's Birthday and President's Day holidays respectively. Elections staff will be available those days to assist candidates with filing their nomination paperwork. Regular business hours are Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

The Placer County Office of Elections is located at 2956 Richardson Drive, Auburn CA in the DeWitt Center. Information on filing for office and the upcoming election can be found on the Office of Elections website at www.placerelections.com or by calling 530-886-5650.
